

SCOOBY DOO and the Snake Eater

Scooby was eating hamburgers with Shaggy, and Daphne was looking on the computer, about the Earth.

Velma was painting an earth portrait. Then a snake ate the paper out of Daphne's truck, while Fred was starting to fix the truck.

The bird was by Scooby and it was hungry, he got Scooby's hamburger and flew away. They were sad, but Fred got in the truck and pushed it.

The rest of the people in the truck, they went to buy a snack, so they drove from store to store. They found the snake and put him in the cage.

They gave the snake a snack, and put the snake in the truck. The snake said he was sorry. Scooby was looking for the bird and they didn't find the bird.

So they went back to the truck, and found it. Next, they went from store to store. The bird was on top of the tree. The snake found the bird first. The bird saw the snake inside of the truck, so the bird flew into the truck. It got the snake out of the truck. Velma was sad that the bird was taking the snake out of the car.

They started to search for the bird again. Scooby was looking for it too. The bird flew inside the truck again and went to talk. He said that he just want to eat.

Daphne ask Fred to go to the nearest Jack in the Box restaurant, so Fred turned into Jack in the Box. They give the bird one hamburger. Shaggy got one too.

Scooby ask for french fries, so he got some. They played games with the bird. The snake watched them and the he can play with them. Fred went to fix the truck. Velma painted a picture of a snake and a bird. Daphne worked on the computer. Scooby was playing games with Shaggy.
